MAPLE POINT MIDDLE SCHOOL
DISCIPLINE CODE
CONFORMS TO NESHAMINY'S SCHOOL
BOARD POLICY #505

I. A STATEMENT ON DISCIPLINE

According to Section 1317, School Laws of Pennsylvania, "every teacher, assistant principal and principal in the public schools shall have the right to exercise the same authority as to conduct and behavior over the pupils attending his/her school during the time they are in attendance, including the time required in going to and coming from their homes as the parents, guardians or persons in parental relations to such pupils may exercise over them."

The above authorization, however, does not mean that a parent or guardian may not bring suit against a teacher or principal should he/she be of the opinion that the punishment has been unjustifiably severe. CORPORAL OR PHYSICAL PUNISHMENT IS NOT TO BE USED AS A DISCIPLINARY MEASURE. Physical contact may be used by members of the certified staff in self-defense, to protect the student involved, to protect other students or to remove a pupil from, or direct a student to, a given area after a student refuses to follow a directive. Staff should exercise judgment in this matter by calling for administrative assistance when necessary.

II. PHILOSOPHY OF DISCIPLINE

A. Effective discipline should serve two purposes: first, it should prevent a recurrence of a particular misbehavior in a student and second it should be a learning experience for the student, permitting him to see why certain school rules have been made and why they must be followed.

B. Discipline is more than "making" a student do what is right. It should encourage a student to "choose" to do what is right.

C. The laying on of hands and the use of reasonable force is permitted in the following instances:

1. In self-defense
2. To protect other pupils
3. To keep a student from injuring himself
4. To remove a student from or direct student to a given area after the student refuses to follow a given directive

D. In an attempt to resolve an "in-class" problem, each teacher will take the following steps in sequence:

1. Work with the pupils on an individual basis; consult with counselors, staff, check cumulative folder.
2. Seek the aid, support and assistance of the students' parents. Contact to parents may be made by telephone or email. If steps one and two fail, turn the problem over to the assistant principal and inform him/her by official incident card of all relevant action taken up to that point in time.

E. When a substitute teacher is in the building, we expect all students to show the utmost courtesy and cooperation. Failure to cooperate will result in an office detention, and if the student has had prior problems, five demerits.

DETENTION AND SUSPENSION NOTE: The middle school administration reserves the right to restrict students who have experienced serious misconduct problems, such as but not limited to suspension from participating in school activities including dances, trips, field trips, and after-school activities.

Administration can, as a consequence, place students on a restriction list that would prohibit him/her from participating and/or attending school related activities or functions. This restriction would not include activities that are directly related to his/her academic program. This restriction list will be reviewed on a monthly basis and students demonstrating behavior worthy of consideration may be removed from the list and have their privileges restored.

The goal of the Maple Point Middle School discipline code is to provide a structure in which students can successfully function and learn. It is also based on the premise that students can change their behavior given the opportunity to do so. In some cases the opportunity must be provided outside the school setting

It is up to the student to produce valid evidence that he/she was not cutting a class. The teacher does not have to run around collecting this information. Once the teacher has verified the student's absence as a cut, he will fill out an incident card and submit it to the office.
- B. An illegal day is a class cut in each class.
- C. If a student come in after the halfway point in a period as an unexcused late, it will be considered a class cut.

- A. Students who have been absent for acceptable reasons are expected to return an absence excuse note to their roll call teacher within three school days after returning to school.
- B. The roll call teacher will attempt to obtain this note from his/her student for a period of three days following the student's return to school.
- C. If the student fails to bring in the excuse note after three days, the roll call teacher will turn that student's name and the dates of absences over to the assistant principal.
- D. At this point the assistant principal will declare the day (s) illegal, assign an after-school detention and notify the parents of such. He/she will also determine whether the student's absence was due to an acceptable cause or due to actual cutting of school.
- E. If the assistant principal determines that the incident is simply a "no note offense," he/she will handle the incident himself/herself and communicate with the parents that failure to bring in excuse cards could lead to future court fines and suspension.
- F. The second time a student fails to bring in an absence excuse card within three days he/she will be given five (5) demerits.

If the students do not attend an assigned detention and/or ISS, the student will receive an immediate Out-of-School Suspension with a mandatory in-school parent conference. Also, the penalty for all future lateness's to homeroom/school will be Out-of-School Suspension with an in school parent conference.

IN-SCHOOL SUSPENSION ROOM PROCEDURES

When a student requires frequent disciplinary action, he/she will receive only ONE (1) in-school suspension in a three week period. Further accumulation of demerits will result in an Out of School suspension. A student may receive three In-School Suspension incidents per marking period. After the third ISS incident, a parent meeting will be scheduled with the administration in an effort to further a positive change in a student's behavior. If a parent conference is not held, additional accumulation of demerits will result in Out-of-School Suspension only.

In the event a student misbehaves while serving an In-School Suspension, parents will be notified to pick up their child immediately on that same day. An additional day of Out-of-School Suspension will occur.
