

Learning Chinese in YingHua Language School

Open House

May 1, 2016

Rider University, Lawrenceville, NJ

All are welcome to join us. You will have the opportunity to speak with the students, teachers, and staff.

YingHua offers the following two unique programs that are not available in other schools in the local areas, including Princeton, Lawrenceville, West Windsor, Plainsboro, and Montgomery.

Online Google Classroom

It provides an online classroom for the students who have scheduling conflicts. Possible eLearning with the advantages of more peer-to-peer and student-teacher interactions, extensive discussion participations, convenient asynchronous commutations, and self-controlled learning pace.

Chinese as Second Language (CSL)

From Grade 1 to 11, YingHua teaches simplified Chinese characters and follows ACTFL's (The American Council on Teaching of Foreign Languages') "The Five Cs" Standards: Communication, Culture, Connections, Comparisons, and Communities.

Time and Place

The Information session will begin at 2:40 p.m. on May 1 in Room 205 of the Fine Arts Building at Rider University. The session will provide an overview of the curriculum. It will be followed by the Parenting Forum. Financial aid is available.

Find out more about YingHua Language School at <http://www.yinghua.org>