Dear Parents or Guardians of Incoming Tenth Graders:

The English Department of Neshaminy High School is pleased to announce the continuation of our summer reading program, with a new emphasis on student interest and self-selection. Studies have shown that students who continue to read during the summer are more perceptive readers, more expressive writers and more thoughtful speakers. Reading during the summer increases an awareness of the connection between reading for pleasure and reading for knowledge. Summer reading can help students become independent, life-long learners.

Students entering 10th grade English classes in the fall are asked to either self-select or read one of the suggested titles listed below during their summer vacation. Students may select any literary title, 100 pages or longer, of interest that is not a required reading from another course. During first marking period, students will earn a grade for a thematically based in-class writing assignment based on their self-selected text.

For students entering 10th grade AP preparatory classes, they are required to read Cat's Cradle by Kurt Vonnegut, in addition, to a self-selected text.

Thank you for supporting the summer reading program. We encourage you to have a conversation with your child about what he/she is choosing to read. Choice is essential in fostering the love of literature. The books may be borrowed from our school library electronically, local libraries, or purchased at local bookstores.

Sincerely,

The Neshaminy High School English
