

We Build Futures Award

April, 2018

Sharon Marte

*English Teacher
Poquessing Middle School*

In your nomination, the following were highlighted:

- You, as ELA chairperson and teacher, along with Paula Farr, an ELA Teacher and reading specialist, are a dynamic pair;
- Together you work to foster a love of reading at Poquessing Middle School and lead the professional development of teachers in the area of English Language Arts;
- You co-facilitate the Poquessing's Book Chat, which continues to meet throughout the summer;
- Both you and Ms. Farr provide leadership across all content areas;
- You have both led professional development sessions for your colleagues on the use of PDE's SAS, Performance Plus, PVASS, and Text Dependent Analysis, while continually providing opportunities for colleagues to build a repertoire of best practice ELA strategies; and
- Both you and Ms. Farr continue to ignite a love of reading and writing among many of your pupils in afterschool sessions.

In so many ways, you have helped advance our belief that excellence in education requires support, sacrifice, and involvement from the total community.

You are an asset to the Poquessing Middle School and the district as a whole. Please wear the pin with pride. You are one of the reasons Neshaminy has a strong foundation of success to build upon
