

We Build Futures Award

April, 2019

Danielle Dyas

Teacher

Albert Schweitzer Elementary School

In your nomination, the following were highlighted:

- You are a dedicated, caring teacher that truly knows her students and their families;
- You work tirelessly to help get students support and resources and work closely with the ESAP team when there are challenges or concerns with academic and/or social/emotional needs of your students;
- You are an integral part of the SWPBS team at Schweitzer and have been an important part of helping SWPBS get off the ground at the school;
- You are also a leader in the Tier 2 Behavior Team connected to SWPBS and lead the team in weekly meetings;
- You help oversee data entry and analysis for the team to get students on Check In/Check Out and are involved in the Mentoring program;
- You are an active, engaged member of the District-level Instructional Rounds team;
- You are well respected, especially because you always look to grow in your instructional practices;
- You are willing to try new things with technology to excite student interest in learning -- for example, learning Skype and how to add videos and student artifacts to SeeSaw;
- You have extended yourself to help lead a math Professional Learning Community;
- You contribute to conversations at building- and district-level meetings in insightful, meaningful ways, and are open to listening to others; and
- You are dedicated to the art of teaching and are a true pleasure to work with as a colleague.

The above are ways that show you care about your work and our students. Your work supports our District Beliefs that people learn in different ways and at different rates; that children are the future; and that excellence in education requires support, sacrifice, and involvement from the total community.

You are an asset to Schweitzer Elementary and Neshaminy School District as a whole.
