

We Build Futures Award

November, 2018

Siri Sammartino

*Business Teacher
Neshaminy High School*

In your nomination, the following were highlighted:

- You are a passionate teacher working with students as an advocate and mentor;
- You take risks to inspire your students and provide them with an actual sense of today's business world which will help them make career choices;
- You are a teacher-leader and one who always makes student-centered decisions; and
- You have championed the important, early work associated with the new AVID (Advancement Via Individual Determination) program in the high school.

The above are examples of ways that show you care about your work and our students. Your work supports our District belief that children are the future, that all people can learn, that all people have worth, and that a quality education is a right.

You are an asset to Neshaminy High School and the District as a whole.
