

Generosity

I strive to be generous in my words, my spirit and in my deeds. It is my life's aim to give more than I take.

Perseverance

I seek challenges with the knowledge that sometimes I will fail. I will learn from setbacks and will not let them define me. I will rise each time, continue to challenge myself and grow as an individual.

Gratitude

I vow to give thanks for the many gifts in my life. I will try my best to appreciate the little things that I sometimes overlook and express my thanks for them.

Shield

My shield, a book with a winged-heart represents my most cherished virtues.

The book represents my quest for knowledge. The full heart represents my spirit of joy, gratitude and generosity, and the wings represent my desire to rise to every challenge.

Joy

Happiness is a choice. I chose to bring a smile with me to be a bright spot in the darkness.

Wisdom

Learning new things is important to me. Education is a lifelong pursuit. There is always more to learn, master, and share.
