

Name: _____

Self-Evaluation:

YES NO

Were YOU the HERO of this epic poem?
Did you effectively use elements of the hero's journey?
Did you write AT LEAST 25 lines?
Did you select one of the "starter" lines to begin your poem?
Did you include at least one example of ALLITERATION? Did you highlight it?
Did you include at least one example of CEASURA? Did you highlight it?
Did you include at least one example of PERSONIFICATION? Did you highlight it?
Did you include at least on example of a KENNING? Did you highlight it?
Did you spell check your work?
Did you read it aloud?
Did you submit it to Turn it in?

- The elements of the hero's journey include: ordinary world, call to adventure, refusal, mentor, crossing the threshold, test, approach, ordeal, reward, road block, atonement, and return. Indicate which of these elements you used and the line number of the poem in which they are used. (Example: mentor, line 8)

- Write your favorite line of your poem:

Name: _____

TEACHER EVALUATION:

Complete 25 lines of poetry	/25
You as the subject of the epic poem. Evidence of elements of the hero's journey	/20
Example of alliteration. Highlighted.	/10
Example of personification. Highlighted.	/10
Example of caesura. Highlighted.	/10
Example of kenning. Highlighted.	/10
Thoughtful completion of self-evaluation	/10
Spelling	/5
Comments:	