

Frappuccino Design Contest!

Barnes & Noble Bookfair

Do you have what it takes to design the perfect beverage? These frappuccino (“frappe”) drinks start with a base of milk and are blended with ice – you decide what flavors and toppings to add. If your design is chosen, your drink will be the official Albert Schweitzer Elementary School frappe at the bookfair, and you will receive a free frappe from the Barnes & Noble Café! Return this form to your homeroom by Tues Oct 27.
