September is Pediatric Cancer Awareness Month, and Neshaminy has joined the fight with a District-wide Spirit Week. On Friday, you got the message to come comfy and wear your pajamas today. Tomorrow, September 12, wear your favorite college gear to support MiniTHON and the Four Diamonds Foundation which supports cancer research and assists pediatric cancer patients at Penn State Children's Hospital. Also, please support our girls' tennis team tomorrow as they support MiniTHON and go cheer them on at their match at 3:30 p.m. Some MiniTHON gear will be available for purchase at the match, there will be buckets to collect loose change and links to our donor drive if you want to make a more significant donation. All proceeds raised through MiniTHON Spirit Week and all year will be donated to Four Diamonds. Look for posters around the school, check out our bulletin boards upstairs by F-hall and listen to the announcements so you don't miss out on the fun.
