

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS – May 30

Day 1

RockFest: Do you like going to concerts? Do you enjoy the thrill and high energy of live music? You can enjoy the concert experience right here at Neshaminy this Saturday night. The Rock Band program will be hosting their final concert of the year, RockFest, in the Auditorium. There will be four bands: Dynamically Challenged, The Dropouts, Ascension, and Nine Lives. At RockFest, each will perform a set of popular music ranging from all styles of music with tons of dancing to be had. Don't want to go alone? Bring your friends and family! You can purchase tickets using the QR code on the posters around the school, or you can buy tickets at the door. Again, RockFest is this Saturday at 7pm in the Auditorium. You do NOT want to miss it!

Freshman and Sophomore students going to Dorney Park: The bus lists for Grade 10 are posted outside the Learning Support IPC and under the Class of 2027 banner on Main Street near D hall. Bus lists for Grade 9 are posted outside the Math IPC. Please double check that you are included on a bus. If you are not, you must contact Mrs. Winchester or Mr. Fink.

Girls Cross Country: There will be a meeting on Thursday June 5th at 2:20 in D113 for anyone interested in joining the Girls Cross Country team in the fall.
