COURSE EXPECTATIONS

MATERIALS NEEDED EVERY DAY FOR CLASS: Pencil/Pen, paper.

KEEP ALL CLASS PAPERS IN YOUR FOLDER: Organization is an important skill for your future. Making sure to place all returned papers in your class folder will be very important at the end of the year. Folders should remain in the classroom for easy access.

CLASS WORK: Class work counts and will be a significant part of your grade. Use your time in class wisely so that you have nothing to do at home. You all have very busy lives.

HOMEWORK: You should not have any homework to manage with this course, unless you do not make valuable use of time in the classroom.

VOCABULARY QUIZZES: There will be a few vocabulary quizzes throughout the school year.

TESTS: There will be some tests in this course that should be easily successful for you as long as you complete the classwork and are paying attention.

LABS: You will receive a grade for every Foods Lab. Following directions, organization, working cooperatively, and cleaning up are the most important criteria for this part of your grade.

PROJECTS: There will be a few individual and group projects that may require some research outside of class. These projects are designed as a way to help you apply your new knowledge about food its preparation.

ABSENCES FROM CLASS: You are responsible for anything missed while absent. Foods labs are the only exception. If you know you will be missing class (Science Labs) see me in advance. Lessons and classwork will be posted on Edmodo.

GRADES: Today's Foods is a major subject and carries as much weight as any other class. There is absolutely no reason why you should not do well if you are giving good effort. All grades will be posted on the home access center no later than the weekend after the assignment was collected. If there is need for concern and you are honestly trying, see me for help long before the end of the marking period.

WEB SITE: Assignments are all posted on my web site. There is also a calendar that has any important dates posted. Take advantage of all of the information here to help you with this course. You will also be able to download recipes we used in class and view photos taken during labs here.

EDMODO: All power point lessons and assignments will be posted on our Edmodo class page.
